

QC Inspector

Hydro Group Plc is looking to recruit a Quality Control Inspector to work within their Hydro Bond Engineering and Hydrocable Systems production facility.

The successful candidate will work within the company's existing team of QC Inspectors to verify first of, in process and final product acceptance as well as assisting third party inspectors with customer required external inspections and the creation of documentation packages.

Quality Control Inspector Main responsibilities

- Visual and dimensional inspection
- Pressure testing of subsea cables and connectors
- Electrical and fibre optics testing of connector assemblies and cables
- In process and FAT testing
- Goods inward inspection of customer owned / issued products
- Creating documentation packages to both internal and customer specific requirements

Training and Experience

Essential requirements

- Previous experience of electrical and /or optical testing
- Previous experience of pressure testing
- Previous experience of manufactured product visual and dimensional inspection
- Proficient in the use of Microsoft Office

Preferred but not essential

- Previous experience of internal calibration of test equipment
- Previous experience of working with Third Party inspectors
- Experienced in creating documentation packages consisting of test results, material documentation and certificates of conformity